A key focus of the collaboration was to train Mr. Grellmann in SAP development so that he could be deployed as a consultant on our projects. Through targeted coaching and personalized learning journeys guided by his team lead, Mr. Grellmann was able to build in-depth technical expertise that he could confidently apply in practice. Thanks to this support, he was able to build and develop comprehensive SAP knowledge.

Through his outstanding problem-solving skills, he consistently succeeded in developing creative and actionable solutions within his area of responsibility for client-side challenges in day-to-day consulting (service and projects). He showed no hesitation in familiarizing himself with new topics, and he continuously updated his technical expertise by participating in training courses and familiarizing himself with new technical subjects such as, most recently, SAP Public Cloud.

His quick grasp of concepts enabled him to maintain an overview even of complex issues, and thanks to his logical and analytical thinking he consistently achieved well-balanced and accurate results. He worked with the utmost diligence and, in his day-to-day work, was self-organized, prudent and trustworthy. Even under heavy pressure he remained calm and level-headed. Mr. Grellmann consistently carried out his duties with dedication and loyalty throughout his entire tenure at our company.

Mr. Grellmann was always open and collegial. Even in a hybrid work environment he was able to build and maintain relationships with his team and project members through modern communication channels. He consistently demonstrated an interest in the company and actively participated in internal activities and on various platforms.

Mr. Grellmann's conduct was always exemplary. He was highly regarded by supervisors, colleagues and customers. He was always helpful and put his personal interests aside whenever necessary. At BA Business Advice he was valued and respected as a person of integrity. His performance and work results were consistently recognized.

Mr. Grellmann's employment relationship is ending on the best of terms and with mutual respect.

It is important to us to express our gratitude to him for his excellent work. We regret his departure. We wish him continued success and all the best for his professional and personal future.
